Looking for a charming character home with pride of ownership? The moment you step inside, the lake views immediately stand out and the home feels calm and welcoming. Offering 4 bedrooms plus a den, 3 full bathrooms, and a bright, functional layout, this home is ideal for everyday living and entertaining. The solarium is a cozy place to enjoy the winter sun, while the feature fireplace adds warmth to the main living space. Recent updates include new flooring, doors, trim, lighting, and a fully renovated primary ensuite. Thoughtful details include a wine fridge, built-in closet organizers, feature walls, and modern keyless entry. The lower level adds flexibility with a private bedroom and its own ensuite, along with new French doors. Outside, enjoy a fully fenced yard with fruit trees, new landscaping, app-controlled irrigation, and a hot tub under the arbor. Steps to Trepanier Creek trails, a short drive to Pincushion Mountain, and future golf planned nearby. Ample parking, no rooftops in sight, and a street known for community and charm. (id:6769)
