

4280 Anderson Road Kelowna British Columbia

Ellison

$2,550,000

A rare opportunity to own 10 acres of productive orchard land in the highly sought-after Ellison farming community. Ideally situated in one of the Okanagan's premier agricultural regions, 4280 Anderson Road offers the perfect blend of rural lifestyle, income-producing farmland, and multi-residence flexibility, all within minutes of Kelowna International Airport, UBCO, and everyday amenities. The property features approximately 8.74 acres of established apple production, including 6.70 acres of Ambrosia apples and 2.04 acres of Gala apples, both planted approximately 20 years ago. With fertile soils, excellent growing conditions, and a proven agricultural history, this property presents an outstanding opportunity for orchardists, investors, multi-generational families, or those seeking a country estate with agricultural potential. Adding to the property's versatility are two separate residences. The main home includes an in-law suite, while the cottage provides further flexibility for guests, family members, or supplementary revenue opportunities. Outbuilding options support the agricultural operation and provide space for equipment storage, workshops, and farm-related uses. Surrounded by picturesque orchards and rolling countryside, the property captures the essence of Okanagan living. Enjoy expansive rural views, peaceful surroundings, and the satisfaction of owning a produ...
