

466 Swan Drive Kelowna British Columbia

Kettle Valley

$4,500,000

A custom-built home for the buyer who wants it all... Never before has such a large home had so many of the small details managed in such a meticulous and purposeful way. Every square inch of this stunning residence has been well thought out and very well built. Thoughtful design and a painstaking commitment to detail have created a living space that is both beautiful and practical. The custom-designed and custom-built living space accommodates a large family and more, featuring an expansive footprint in the main home, plus two full guest suites. Every room offers a different experience and an authentic feeling of relaxed elegance and modern style. The property is like the home you have always dreamed of and the luxury resort you have yearned to experience, all at one address. The home is engineered to the highest standards and designed with the utmost attention to detail. This is a property you must experience in person to appreciate, and when your guests arrive, they will also appreciate this magnificent residence. Imagine the look of awe on their faces...
