

5034 South Ridge Drive Kelowna British Columbia

Upper Mission

$950,000

Designed for effortless living & built with lasting quality, this immaculate walkout rancher with a basement offers the perfect blend of comfort, functionality, and stunning views. Meticulously maintained with thoughtful upgrades, this home features updated Hardie board siding, improved insulation, an updated furnace & AC for added efficiency and peace of mind. Positioned to capture sweeping views of Okanagan Lake, the city, mountains, and bridge, the west-facing orientation provides incredible sunsets that photos simply cannot capture. Inside, large windows fill the home with natural light, complementing the inviting open-concept design. The kitchen features maple cabinetry & a spacious pantry, flowing seamlessly into the dining and living areas with access to the covered deck—an ideal space for entertaining while enjoying the scenery. The main level offers nearly stair-free living with two bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and laundry, while the lower level provides additional bedrooms & flexible recreation space for guests & storage. Outside, the beautifully landscaped yard offers a flat, low-maintenance space perfect for pets, children, or gardening. Double garage and driveway for ample parking. Located in the highly sought-after Upper Mission, enjoy parks, a playground directly across the street, walking trails, top-rated schools, and convenient access to Mission Village a...
