

2285 Atkinson Street 505 Penticton British Columbia

Main South

$405,000

This move-in ready home offers a low-maintenance lifestyle in a centrally located, secure 55+ Penticton complex, situated just steps away from shopping and local parks. Located on the fifth floor, this 1,076-square-foot condo features two bedrooms and two bathrooms with a west-facing layout that provides mountain views. Recent updates include brand new flooring, a freshly painted interior, a new hot water tank, and select new appliances. The functional kitchen is equipped with a central island and a cupboard featuring integrated pull-out drawers, while the living area includes a gas fireplace. In the primary bedroom, you will find two large closets and a private ensuite bathroom. The property also includes one assigned underground parking space and a secure storage locker. Residents gain access to the complex's shared recreational building, which hosts a kitchen, fitness room, and library. This functional layout is ideally tailored for seniors seeking convenience, security, and community amenities. (id:6769)
