

5186 Mackinnon Road Peachland British Columbia

Peachland

$949,900

Have you been dreaming of space for chickens, horses, or even a few adorable baby goats? Welcome to 5186 Mackinnon Road, a rare 1.66-acre property offering room to grow, play, and truly enjoy country-style living. The land is beautifully flat and usable, making it ideal for animals, gardens, kids, or even a future pool. The property is already rich with mature plantings, including almond, walnut, and hazelnut trees, along with apple, apricot, and fig trees, plus red and black raspberries. There's ample space for a large garden, and there is a chicken coop ready to fill with more than the 2 resident chickens. Inside, this well-designed 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom home offers a functional layout perfect for a growing family. The second bathroom provides additional space to add a tub or shower if desired. The family room is warm and inviting, centered around a cozy wood-burning fireplace. The kitchen and dining area are a parent's dream—open, spacious, and designed so you can cook and clean while keeping an eye on the kids. Step outside to a private and peaceful back patio, an ideal spot to relax and enjoy the tranquil surroundings. Major updates have already been completed, including a new roof, hot water tank, furnace, air conditioning, and new exterior and patio doors. The property also features RV parking with hookups for added convenience. A truly special property offering spac...
