Big White

$9,680,000

The Lodge at Feathertop (525 Feathertop Way, Big White) is a rare, ski-in/ski-out luxury chalet set within the Big White Ski Resort and located only 50 minutes from Kelowna, BC. Built by famed Timber Kings, this iconic log home estate elevates alpine living to a level that rivals the finest chalets in Canada. Set on a private 0.741-acre parcel, the 10,710 sq.ft. residence (including a 980 sq.ft. guest suite) offers 4 bedrooms and 6 bathrooms, thoughtfully designed for both grand entertaining and intimate, generational living. Old-growth cedar logs, African walnut floors, granite surfaces, bronze chandeliers, cobalt glass sinks, and exquisite custom wrought-ironwork create a home that feels both monumental and warmly inviting. A covered entry opens to soaring interiors anchored by a triple-sided wood-burning fireplace. The expansive family kitchen which is equipped for serious cooking, supports everything from quiet breakfasts to celebratory dinners after a day in the champagne powder that Big White is famous for. Spa-inspired amenities include a sauna, hot tub, & recreation spaces designed for relaxation and fun. The main home sleeps up to 14, while the private guest suite - accessed via a covered breezeway - accommodates up to 6. The Lodge at Feathertop: where mountain adventure and luxurious comfort come together. (id:6769)
