

5396 6 Highway Winlaw British Columbia

Passmore/Winlaw/Slocan

$659,000

Have you been searching for your private oasis nestled in the woods in the heart of the Slocan Valley. Look no further. This 18.45-acre property, complete with a 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom home, offers a unique opportunity to enjoy nature and convenience. Across the street, you'll find an organic farm for fresh veggies, a swimming hole, and a rail trail just a 2-minute walk away. The home, nestled among the trees, features a large deck perfect for entertaining or staying cool on hot summer days. Inside, you'll find an open-concept kitchen and living room with engineered hardwood floors and an updated bathroom. Upstairs are two bedrooms and a laundry area, with a deck off one of the bedrooms. Additional features include a garage at the bottom of the driveway and a 512 sq. ft. shop through the garden at the back of the house. The upper portion of the property includes a separate access road to the cleared area above the house, offering numerous building locations with epic views of Frog Peak, the Valhalla Mountains, and the Slocan River. The paperwork has been initiated for future owners to continue the subdivision process, separating the house from the upper portion of the land including a recently drilled well.
