

5560 Lakeshore Road Kelowna British Columbia

Upper Mission

$6,790,000

Known as Asparagus Bay, this home is built to celebrate Okanagan life. Its 1.297 acres - nurtured into an award-winning water-wise garden - offer a 5000+ square foot house designed by Architect Robert Turik to create ideal views, a roofline that honors the surrounding hillsides, access to outdoor living spaces, sunlight exposure, & privacy. Six bedrooms & four bathrooms total! Inside, the ceiling follows curved trusses varying from 12.5 feet to 20 feet high; the main south-facing windows ensure year-round sun; European tilt windows allow for extra airflow and cross breezes; & a bank of upper windows draw in the morning light. Upstairs, the kitchen is book-ended by living spaces, the master & ensuite both provide lake views, and a one bedroom suite offers privacy to guests. Every room provides seamless access to outside, including 1100+ square feet of patio space w/ stairs to another deck below. Downstairs offers two bedrooms and one bathroom, a kitchenette, access to outdoors, storage, and another roughed-in suite with kitchen and bathroom plumbing. Outside, walk down an accessible path (the old orchard-donkey path!) to 219 feet of lakeshore frontage with beach-entrance swimming and a private 130 foot dock built in 2018, and featuring both a three tonne hoist and parking for guests. The lot is bisected by Lakeshore Road, so landscaped uplands offer additional parking, a de...
