

652 Trumpeter Road Kelowna British Columbia

Kettle Valley

$3,600,000

This stunning estate-style home is located on a quiet cul-de-sac in the prestigious Kettle Valley neighbourhood. The property boasts a gated driveway and breathtaking, unobstructed views of the lake, mountains, and city. The garage is a spacious area that resembles a luxurious commercial space similar to Kelowna's Vaults. It's ideal for anyone with a hobby or a passion for cars. The garage has an impressive floor space of 1569 square feet, accommodating six+ cars. Moreover, it has space for indoor RV parking with high ceilings measuring 17'11", heated epoxy floors, and even a dog wash. The gourmet kitchen is a dream, equipped with high-end appliances, gas range, double oven, two dishwashers, quartz counters, massive eat-at island, and Butler's pantry. The kitchen opens to the dining and living area with a cozy fireplace. The primary bedroom has vaulted ceilings, views from the bed and a luxury ensuite with a double vanity, a soaker tub, a walk-in closet with custom shelving, and washer and dryer. Outdoor living is extended with covered and uncovered patio spaces overlooking the concrete pool and hot tub with sweeping views. The basement includes four additional bedrooms, including a second primary bedroom with an ensuite and walk-in closet. Every detail has been thoughtfully considered, and only high-end finishes have been used. There are too many features to list; this is ...
