Welcome to this meticulously maintained five-bedroom home offering space, flexibility, and breathtaking valley views. Bright and airy throughout, the home is filled with natural light from large windows and perfectly positioned to capture magnificent sunsets from the expansive deck off the dining room. The main level features a huge kitchen with a gas stove, a spacious living room with a cozy gas fireplace, and three bedrooms, creating an ideal layout for families and entertaining alike. Downstairs, you'll find a large family room, two additional bedrooms, a sauna, and a wood stove that helps keep heating costs down during the colder months. With its own separate entrance, the basement also offers excellent suite potential. Outside, the property continues to impress with RV parking, a large backyard with plenty of room for a pool, and an incredible garden space complete with grapes, vegetables, gooseberries, huckleberries, black and red currants, and raspberries. Eight mature fruit and shade trees—including apricot, plum, pear, apple, peach, and Linden trees—create a beautiful and productive outdoor setting. Additional updates include a new furnace, new air conditioner, new built-in dishwasher, and fresh paint throughout. This is a rare opportunity to own a lovingly cared-for home with exceptional outdoor space, flexible living options, and unforgettable views. (id:6769)
