

674 Muir Road Kelowna British Columbia

Fintry

$650,000

A private retreat nestled in nature, located in a community offering a whole different lifestyle well away from the hustle and bustle and inflated prices. This home is within easy driving distance to Vernon or Kelowna, but it will feel like a whole other world away from the rat race! Go hiking in the nearby Provincial Park, take a stroll down at the beach, or have the neighbours over to relax on your private deck with you. This home has three levels and so many possibilities. There is room for living, working, and playing, and to get some separation or to come together as a family. The layout lends itself to adding a suite or independent living area for family. The lot has room for all your toys. For the price of a small apartment in downtown Kelowna, you can live the good life... you can breathe. THIS is the life you deserve. (id:6769)
