Level-entry riverfront living on the South Thompson is getting harder to find--and this property delivers in all the right ways. With just under 2,000 sq ft on the main floor, the home is well laid out for everyday living and entertaining. The kitchen, nook, and family room are positioned to take full advantage of the river views, opening onto a landscaped yard that leads right to the water. A separate formal living and dining area at the front of the home provides additional space for gatherings without sacrificing functionality. The primary bedroom is set along the river side, with direct access to the yard and hot tub--an ideal setup to take in the setting year-round. Two additional bedrooms complete the main floor, while a bonus room offers flexibility for guests, a studio, or a quiet retreat. A major value-add is the recently completed, fully legal 2-bedroom suite--perfect as a mortgage helper or for extended family. Set on a 15,000+ sq ft lot, there's ample space for parking, privacy, and outdoor use, complemented by an oversized double garage. Dock, a usable yard, and true riverfront lifestyle round out a property that's becoming increasingly difficult to replace. Easy to view. (id:6769)
