7022 Barnhartvale Road Kamloops British Columbia

Barnhartvale

$399,000

Your dream home deserves more than a great floor plan. It deserves room to breathe. Welcome to 7022 Barnhartvale Road, Barnhartvale's newest acreage opportunities. Five 5-6 acre lots are available, offering space, privacy, beautiful views and the freedom to create a home that truly fits your lifestyle, all within Kamloops city limits. Each lot features a drilled well (20GPM - Buyer to verify), planned prepared driveway and identified building area, helping you get one step closer to building. With room to spread out, these properties are ideal for a custom home, outdoor living, extra parking and toys, with potential to explore multi-generational living or a second residence, subject to City approval and applicable requirements. Enjoy the best of Barnhartvale with hiking, horseback riding and Eaglepoint Golf Resort nearby, plus schools, shopping, restaurants and local favourite The Pond just minutes away. Downtown Kamloops is approximately 15 minutes away. Build new. Keep the space. And wake up to the hills instead of the house next door. (id:6769)
