

726 Whitehead Street Sicamous British Columbia

Sicamous

$625,000

Welcome home to this beautiful, single-level residence that has been meticulously cared for and is completely move-in ready for its next owners. The bright, open-concept living area features a well-appointed kitchen and living space, which flows seamlessly to two comfortable bedrooms tucked away at the quiet end of the house. The spacious primary suite serves as a private retreat with a dedicated ensuite bathroom and a generous walk-in closet, while main-floor laundry adds to the effortless convenience of the layout. Step outside from the main floor onto your expansive 12' x 24' deck, perfect for entertaining and overlooking a double-sized lot with endless space for kids and pets to play. This property is a dream setup for toys and hobbies, boasting an abundance of parking for RVs, boats, and trailers complete with an on-site sewer disposal hookup, a pristine 4-foot crawlspace spanning the entire footprint of the house for unmatched storage, and an oversized detached garage at the back that is nearly the size of the house itself. Whether you are looking for a full-time residence, a retirement haven, or the ultimate four-season recreational basecamp in the Shuswap, this stunning Sicamous property delivers it all. (id:6769)
