New Brunswick Real Estate Board

Welcome to this beautifully restored 5-bedroom year-round beach house that perfectly blends the timeless charm of a historic home with the convenience of today's modern amenities. Nestled just steps from the water, this property offers an ideal coastal lifestyle. At the heart of the home is a stunning, chef-inspired kitchen that will delight both foodies and home cooks. It flows seamlessly into the dining room, which overlooks a lush, landscaped backyard featuring an in-ground pool and a covered seating area perfect for relaxing and entertaining on long summer evenings. Recently refinished hardwood floors add warmth and character throughout. The inviting living room features a cozy propane fireplace, while the classic front porch with water views is ideal for soaking in the beauty of those laid-back summer days. This home includes two full bathrooms, a powder room, and a thoughtful layout, with the private primary suite tucked into its own wing for added comfort and tranquility. Originally transported from Moncton and lovingly reassembled on this picturesque lot, this one-of-a-kind property blends vintage charm with stylish modern updates. Additional highlights include a double-car garage and exceptional craftsmanship throughout. Don't miss your opportunity to own a truly unique coastal retreat in an unbeatable location! (id:6769)
