Perched on the top floor, this rare three-bedroom condo offers an elevated lifestyle defined by space, light, unforgettable views and of course lifestyle. Soaring 14-foot vaulted ceilings create an airy, open atmosphere, perfectly complemented by a modern layout designed for both comfort and entertaining. Expansive windows frame panoramic, breathtaking views of the city and surrounding mountains--your daily backdrop from sunrise to sunset. The open-concept living area w/ gas fire place flows seamlessly, making it easy to host, relax, or simply take in the scenery. Each bedroom provides flexibility for family, guests, or a home office, all while maintaining a sense of privacy and tranquility above it all. Large rear deck with upgraded aluminum roof. Step outside and enjoy the convenience of being just a walk to Thompson Rivers University, the hospital, and the vibrant heart of downtown. Cafes, restaurants, shops, and everyday amenities are all within easy reach, making this location ideal for students, professionals, and anyone seeking a connected, walkable lifestyle. Whether you're starting your day with a coffee overlooking the mountains or winding down with city lights below, this rare unit offers a rare blend of style, convenience, and inspiring views.
