

9357 Winchester Road Vernon British Columbia

Fintry

$299,999

Open House Sunday, April 26, 12-3pm. YES... You read the price right! MILLION DOLLAR VIEWS, absolutely stunning and unbelievable from the deck, there are a couple comfy chairs for you to really soak it in if you want, no wine supplied. One of the coolest properties you will see for a very long time, it feels like Neil Young should be writing songs here on a regular basis. The coziest post and beam/ log cabin that will instantly take you back to the simple, easy times. Real 3/4 ash hardwood floors with Italian tile entrance and kitchen, concrete counter tops with fern inlay pattern, ultra cute live edge sitting bar/island, and the cutest little wood stove that fits so perfectly for those cozy nights. One of a kind fir/stained glass door off the living room to the private lower deck for those morning coffees overlooking the lake, open vaulted ceiling to upper level with custom funky juniper hand rail that leads to you the upper floor with small office space/family room, bright open bedroom, king sized bed and 4 piece bathroom with really cool details. The composite deck will blow your mind! Views from Armstrong to Kelowna, plan your showing around sunset and please, try not to stay 3 hours. Conventional financing not an option hence the really, really good price! Ask your realtor, see rep remarks. (id:6769)
