

955 Coronation Avenue Kelowna British Columbia

Kelowna North

$825,000

Why settle for a townhouse when you can own a detached home in one of Kelowna's most walkable and connected neighborhoods? Just minutes to downtown, close to the lake, parks, coffee shops, restaurants, and everyday essentials, this is the kind of location people move for and rarely want to leave. This 3-bedroom, 3-bathroom home offers 1,399 sqft of smart, functional living with all three bedrooms upstairs and comfortable main floor living space below. It's the perfect fit for professionals, young families, or anyone wanting more privacy and freedom without giving up the urban lifestyle. Outside, the property really shines. You've got a fully fenced and private backyard, plus a separate insulated and wired flex space that works perfectly as a home office! Above it all is a massive rooftop patio with pergola and sweeping views over downtown, the valley, and Knox Mountain -- an incredible second outdoor living space for entertaining or unwinding. The oversized double garage offers rare downtown practicality with room for vehicles, bikes, skis, paddleboards, and all the extras. This is a unique opportunity to own a detached home at a price point where many buyers are still looking at townhomes or condos. Great location, great privacy, and a home with real personality.
