

96 Nelson Avenue Penticton British Columbia

Main North

$529,000

Exceptional Development Opportunity Near Main Street, this prime lot offers endless potential for developers and investors. Situated only three doors down from two beautifully built duplexes on a similar-sized lot, this property presents a rare chance to create something special. The existing house holds no value and the property is being sold for land value only. With lot dimensions of 75' x 101' and R4-S zoning, this site is ideal for a multi-unit residential project. Seize this opportunity to build in a sought-after location—contact us today to secure your next development site. (id:6769)
