

975 Neptune Road Kelowna British Columbia
 Rutland South
$749,000

Tucked away on a quiet cul-de-sac in one of Rutland's most desirable pockets, this meticulously maintained home offers a rare combination of privacy, flexibility, and future potential. Backing directly onto protected green space that will never be developed, you'll enjoy peaceful views, added privacy, and a true connection to nature right from your backyard. Surrounded by well-kept character homes and long-term residents, this is the kind of neighborhood buyers are always searching for but rarely find. Pride of ownership is evident throughout the home, with thoughtful updates and exceptional care taken over the years. Many non-cosmetic updates have been done including all new plumbing in 2024. The recently updated basement features new flooring and offers excellent suite potential for those looking to create additional income or accommodate extended family. Outside, the detached shop opens the door to even more possibilities. Whether you're seeking the ultimate workshop, a private home office, studio space, or exploring the potential for a future carriage house or secondary dwelling, the groundwork is already in place. Water can be brought to the building, and convenient driveway access provides added flexibility for future development plans. Properties offering this level of maintenance, privacy, and long-term potential are becoming increasingly difficult to find. A unique o...
