

996 Bull Crescent Kelowna British Columbia

Lower Mission

$1,549,000

Brand new, move-in ready and built for the way families actually live. 996 Bull Crescent offers an impressive combination of space, flexibility and income potential in one of the Upper Mission's newer neighbourhoods. Built by K Max Homes, this thoughtfully designed home features a bright, contemporary interior, generous living spaces and a layout that works equally well for a growing or multi-generational family. The main living area is designed for everyday comfort and entertaining, with an open-concept kitchen, dining, great room, office/bedroom, and full bath, modern finishes and excellent natural light. Spacious bedrooms and well-planned family areas provide separation without sacrificing functionality. Below, a legal 2-bed suite provides an mortgage helper or extended-family suite. A separate additional finished area offers even more flexibility, with rough-ins in place for laundry and a future kitchen setup, ideal for a rec room, guest space, or multi-generational living. Enjoy a private backyard with no rear neighbour, while the attached garage and ample parking add everyday practicality. A full Samsung appliance package will be included prior to possession. Located in The Orchards, surrounded by newer homes and minutes from schools, parks, trails, shopping and the amenities of the Upper Mission. New construction. Legal suite. Flexible additional living space. No rear...
