

1476 Westridge Court Kelowna British Columbia

$2,095,000

Imagine starting each day with coffee as the sun rises over Okanagan Lake, the valley stretching out before you in quiet beauty. Picture evenings spent around the pool with family, the sky glowing with Kelowna's famous sunsets. 1476 Westridge Court isn't just a home—it's a setting for the life you've been dreaming of. Here, every detail invites connection. The chef's kitchen is where family meals and late-night conversations happen. Accordion glass doors open the heart of the home directly to the backyard, so kids' laughter by the pool blends with the warmth of gatherings inside. On nearly half an acre, there's room to breathe, to host, to grow. The primary suite gives you a private retreat—spa-inspired comfort where you can unwind at the end of the day. Upstairs, two spacious bedrooms with a shared bath are perfect for kids, while downstairs offers two more large spare bedrooms, a renovated bathroom, rec room, gym, and private entrance for guests or extended family. Set on a quiet cul-de-sac in prestigious Crawford Estates, this is where families thrive. Parks and trails are just steps away, yet you're minutes from schools, shops, and the lake. It's private, it's serene, and it's designed for a lifestyle that balances relaxation and connection. If you've been waiting for a place that feels less like a house and more like home, this is it.
