

6430 Whiskey Jack Road 310 Big White British Columbia

$459,000

The Ptarmigan is located right in the centre of the Big White Village giving easy access to everything Big White has to offer. Walk out your door and it's all right there for you to enjoy. This top floor unit has been renovated and is ready to enjoy. No rental commitments for next ski season and freshly painted and new flooring highlight this property. The GST is paid and all the furniture is included. The building has just been renovated and the outside decks and exterior of the building have all been replaced and the building looks great. Comforting to know all that work has been one and paid for by the current owners. There is a great view of the ski hill from your deck and you can wake up each morning to see the conditions on the hill from your deck. If you want a top floor two bedroom unit in the village centre with no work left to do and ready to go, this might be it. Call and arrange your showing today. (id:6769)
