

495 Montgomery Road Kelowna British Columbia

$1,250,000

Located in the heart of Central Rutland, 495 Montgomery Road presents an excellent opportunity for investors and developers seeking a strategically positioned property with long-term redevelopment potential. Situated within walking distance of shopping, restaurants, grocery stores, schools, parks, public transit, and everyday amenities. Just approximately 8 minutes to UBC Okanagan and Kelowna International Airport, with convenient access to Highway 97. The property is located within Kelowna's growing Rutland Urban Centre, where OCP 2040 supports higher-density mixed-use development. Available in conjunction with 500, 510 and 520 Rutland Road North, creating a combined 1.04-acre (approximately 45,302 sq. ft.) development site. The proposed UC4 mixed-use concept offers potential for a six-storey building featuring approximately 100-105 rental apartments with ground-floor commercial retail space. An ideal location for a purpose-built rental or stratified residential development, benefiting from proximity to major employment centres, educational institutions, transportation routes, and commercial amenities. A rare opportunity to secure a substantial development site in one of Kelowna's evolving urban centres. All development potential is subject to zoning verification, feasibility studies, and City approvals. (id:6769)
