

1016 PURCELL CRESCENT Creston British Columbia

$100,000

Dreaming of building your own home? Look no farther, we have the perfect property for you! Located in beautiful Hawkview Estates, this well maintained residential subdivision offers scenic views in all seasons across the Creston Valley. Conveniently located within Creston and surrounded by newer homes, this is one of the few lots left that have not been built on in Purcell Crescent. With underground servicing and a west facing view line, this is a prime option for you. The grade of the land would lend itself to a walkout lower level style of home but you are definitely not limited to just one scenario for your floor plan with this property - bring your ideas and imagination. There is a registered Building Scheme on title to preserve the integrity of this subdivision - call your REALTOR and come take a look; imagine yourself living here! (id:6769)
