

10623 Highway 33 East Highway Kelowna British Columbia

$700,000

Is this the home you have been hunting for? At this price, it will not be in your sights for long... so don't be afraid to pull the trigger! The city is just a few minutes' drive away, but you feel as if you are living a completely different lifestyle here. You have room to breathe, to be who you want to be, and live life on your own terms. The suite downstairs is almost complete and could reduce your cost of ownership to well below the rental rates of a 2-bedroom apartment in the city! A functional floor plan inside is complemented by natural light flooding into the home. The floor plan is very practical, offering functional spaces to live, work, and play. It's a cozy place to relax after a day out hunting or over at the ski hill close by. If you like the outdoors, you will LOVE this home. Imagine relaxing, listening to the water go by in the creek; the sun is shining, and you are finally, truly... Free! (id:6769)
