

Estevan Saskatchewan

$179,000

1425 sq.ft retail space with great store frontage now available. This building could have many uses, with a modern front end and great working space in the back end. The building has had all the electrical updated in 2021, and a new furnace and A/C unit in 2023. This is a great time to purchase a building like this with everything going on in our community! If you are thinking about moving into your own building, or just about to start something new, this is a great opportunity! Call today for more information. (id:6769)
