Welcome to the extraordinary lifestyle of the Lower Mission, where living along the pristine shores of Okanagan Lake and the nearby Village of Pandosy combines convenience with charm. You'll find upscale boutiques, gourmet restaurants, and charming cafes just minutes from your home. Mission Bay's exclusive gated community, built with timeless integrity in 1990, features this exquisite home, which is part of a tight-knit enclave of only twelve discerning neighbors. Surrounded by lush, manicured grounds, this property provides a peaceful and scenic backdrop for your everyday life. Enjoy sunny afternoons lounging by the lakeside pool or take a quick stroll to the sandy shoreline just steps from your backyard. You can also set sail from your private dock, equipped with an electric boat lift and a jet ski lift, giving you access to countless aquatic adventures right outside your door. The open-concept main floor is flooded with natural light, seamlessly connecting the kitchen, dining area, and two spacious living areas. The space is centered around a stunning two-sided gas fireplace. The chef's kitchen boasts a granite island, top-of-the-line appliances, and a generous butler's pantry--ideal for entertaining guests. On the upper level, the primary suite features access to a private lakeside balcony, creating your personal oasis for relaxing and enjoying breathtaking views. Two additional bedrooms and a spacious loft provide ample space for family or guests. Step outside to your large lakeside patio, complete with a soothing water feature and a gas barbecue hookup, perfect for hosting gatherings while taking in the captivating views. This home offers more than just a residence; it provides a lifestyle. Experience the tranquility, luxury, and convenience of Mission Bay living, where every day feels like a vacation. Close proximity to Kelowna General Hospital adds peace of...
