

13755 ALLISON Road Prince George British Columbia

$473,000

Here is 6.68 acres of prime building property in Beaverley. Nestled in mature landscaping, this private retreat is conveniently located only 15 minutes from town. The property features a flat build site, and is development-ready with most building preparations already completed. Utilities are already connected to the small house currently on the property; hydro, gas, a shared well, and a septic system. The house is perfect for living in while you build your dream home. Afterward, it could be repurposed as a guest house or rental (buyer to verify). This property is ideal for anyone looking to build in a serene natural setting. Quick possession is available!
