Some homes are practical. Others make a statement -- quietly. Home 14 is for buyers who notice proportions, light, and design details. The ceilings feel higher. The spaces feel intentional. This is a home that rewards attention. Here, the architecture does the talking. Clean lines. Thoughtful finishes. A sense of openness that makes everyday living feel elevated rather than ordinary. It's the kind of place guests comment on -- not because it's flashy, but because it feels composed and confident. A home chosen, not settled for. If design matters to you -- and how a home feels is as important as how it functions -- Home 14 is the one people remember. (id:6769)
