

141 Crossridge Road Enderby British Columbia

$1,449,000

Experience European charm and old-world craftsmanship in this stunning Tuscan-inspired estate, nestled on 6.65 private, treed acres. Offering over 4,100 sq. ft. of beautifully finished living space plus an unfinished basement, this architecturally designed home blends luxury and warmth in every detail. The grand entrance features a striking solid wood door that opens into a home filled with rich character—hardwood and tile floors, two wood-burning fireplaces, and top-quality finishes throughout. The chef's kitchen is designed for entertaining, showcasing a large granite island, high-end oversized gas range with double ovens, and plenty of space for gathering. With 5 bedrooms, including 4 with private ensuites, plus an additional full bathroom on the upper level, there's ample room for family and guests. Built-in cabinetry adds thoughtful function to the bedrooms and bonus spaces, while the large family/bonus room above the attached double garage provides a perfect retreat. Formerly operated as a bed and breakfast, this home offers exceptional versatility. Outside, a massive 10+ bay shop/garage provides endless possibilities for storage, hobbies, or business use. This one-of-a-kind property combines timeless design, privacy, and practicality in a truly remarkable setting. (id:6769)
