

1959 Hidden Lake Place Kelowna British Columbia

$1,399,000

Tucked into one of Wilden's most established family neighbourhoods, this home unfolds in a way that feels both effortless and inviting--where light pours in through expansive windows and every space is designed to be lived in and enjoyed. Mornings begin in the heart of the home, where a timeless kitchen with white cabinetry, granite countertops, and a generous island sets the tone for the day ahead. Coffee in hand, the home slowly comes to life as sunlight fills the open living spaces, while the seamless connection to the outdoors invites you to step outside and take it all in. Here, the backyard becomes the setting for everyday moments and lasting memories. Surrounded by mature greenery, the in-ground pool, expansive patio, and multiple gathering areas create a private retreat where summer afternoons stretch into long, relaxed evenings--kids playing, friends gathered, and time well spent. Upstairs, the home quiets into a more personal retreat. Three bedrooms offer comfortable separation, while the primary suite feels like its own escape, complete with a walk-in closet, ensuite, and a private deck overlooking the neighbourhood--an ideal place to start or end the day in stillness. The lower level adds another layer of flexibility, adapting easily to the rhythm of your lifestyle. Whether it's movie nights, a dedicated workspace, a home gym, or room for guests, the additional bedroom, full bathroom, and expansive recreation areas ensure there's space for everyone. Set just moments from Wilden's parks, trails, and natural surroundings, this is more than a home--it's a place where daily life feels grounded, connected, and quietly elevated. (id:6769)
