

2169 Flamingo Road 210 Kamloops British Columbia

$399,900

This 974sqft 1 Bedroom + large den (8'x10') is located in Valleyview Gardens 55+ complex, has plenty of open livable space and is on the quiet side of the building where you can really enjoy the covered deck with ample privacy. Being able to have this large a living space is rare, but even better than that, it is within easy walking distance to all your everyday amenities, as Valleyview Square shopping complex is right across the street for all your needs. Public transport in the City of Kamloops is right outside your front door, making it very easy to get around the city. Inside Valleyview Gardens, you will find a few special amenities as well, like a hobby/community room with warm, welcoming people who share the space as a common area, and a workshop space in the secure underground garage near the parking stall, so you do not have to give up being creative in woodworking or tinkering throughout the day. There really is more than meets the eye here in this inviting 55+ living complex where you do not have to give up much of anything when you become the new owner here. (id:6769)
