

2860 Highway 97 North Other Falkland British Columbia

$725,000

Welcome to this 5.13-acre slice of country living in the beautiful North Okanagan. The eye-catching red 31' x 62' shop is full of potential—bring your tools, your toys, or your big ideas. There's also a barn, chicken coop, and plenty of garden space, perfect for growing your own food and living a little closer to the land. With two access points right off Highway 97 North, between Vernon and Falkland, you've got great exposure if you're thinking about a roadside stand. Fresh eggs, home grown veggies, or, you name it. The home has good bones and lots of usable space—totally livable as-is while you finish the renovations or build it out into a cozy, country dream home. To finish it off, a peaceful view of the little lake next door, right from your living room. This is a great spot to put down roots, build some equity, and enjoy the simpler things. Come take a look—you might just fall in love. Book your showing today! (id:6769)
