

3099 Burtch Road Kelowna British Columbia

$950,000

Complete with an oversized garage and a private courtyard, this fully-detached single family home offers the perfect low-maintenance townhouse alternative for snowbirds and empty nesters alike. High-end finishes and quality construction throughout the home convey a sense of luxury and isolate you from the outside world, while single-story living ensures you will be able to enjoy this home for many years to come. Inside, you will find an expansive great room with ample space to entertain--as well as two generous bedrooms, two full bathrooms, and a spacious laundry room. Moving outside, you will find a fully-fenced courtyard connecting the house to the oversized garage and creating a secure and private back yard. For all of your storage needs, the house sits on a 4ft crawlspace with easy access via a staircase near the front door. All of this and you are still within walking distance to Mission Creek Greenway as well as everything the South Pandosy district has to offer.
