

4359 Maxwell Road Peachland British Columbia

$625,000

Escape to your own private retreat with 11.58 acres of natural beauty at an unbeatable price! This secluded property offers year-round Jack Creek running through it, creating a serene and picturesque setting. The land is naturally treed and provides level access to the upper portion, while a gravel driveway leads down to the creek side. With power available within 100 meters of the lot line and a high-yield 80 GPM artesian well already in place, this is an affordable opportunity to own a piece of nature without sacrificing convenience. Located just a short drive from Peachland and West Kelowna, you'll enjoy easy access to amenities while still feeling a world away. Whether you love hiking, mountain biking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, dirt biking, or hunting, this property offers endless outdoor adventure right out your back door. Don't miss this chance to own an affordable slice of nature's paradise! (id:6769)
