

440 Westminster Avenue Penticton British Columbia

$550,000

In the heart of town, opportunity knocks. This large, RM2-zoned double lot offers exceptional potential for homeowners, investors, and developers alike. Located just steps from the beach, shopping, restaurants, and everyday amenities, the value here extends well beyond the existing home. The existing residence occupies one side of the property, while the second lot is ready for your vision, creating a rare opportunity to build while retaining, renovating, or reimagining the current home. Surrounded by newer homes and recent redevelopment, the property is ideally positioned for future development. RM2 zoning allows for a variety of residential possibilities, including the potential for a duplex or fourplex (buyer to verify with the municipality). Whether you're looking to renovate, invest, develop, or explore a combination of options, this property offers flexibility to match your vision. Large, centrally located development parcels are becoming increasingly difficult to find. With desirable zoning, a walkable location, a rare double lot, and multiple paths forward, this is an exceptional opportunity to secure a property with outstanding long-term potential. (id:6769)
