Have you been looking for luxury in all the wrong places? Look no further because this villa at Hawk Crest at Predator Ridge is what you've been looking for. This two bed, two bath, private townhouse has elegant views overlooking Birdie Lake. This level-entry, open-concept home greets you with tasteful bamboo flooring and the kitchen excites you with it's granite countertops and stainless-steel appliances. Of course, when you purchase a property at Predator Ridge, you're not just getting a home, but a whole lifestyle. These villas have their own pool, but more than that you get access to the Predator Ridge fitness center and walking trails. You're also mere minutes from Sparkling Hill for those times where you want to take your weekends to the next level or head to the original clubhouse for a fun, fabulous night out. You get worldclass living that you can take advantage of year round or lock up and go on your world travels. The choice is yours, but first you have to choose this home first. Book your showing today and see the beginning of your next adventure! (id:6769)
