

5251 Buchanan Road Peachland British Columbia

$3,495,000

Exceptional Peachland lakeshore property featuring a main home, carriage house, and three-car garage. Set on a generous sized waterfront parcel with easy access to the lake, this property offers meticulous landscaping and fully fenced grounds. The main residence is thoughtfully designed for everyday living and entertaining, with an elevator connecting all three levels for convenient easy access. An open-concept floor plan is complemented by glass doors that open seamlessly out onto a spacious stamped-concrete deck. The spacious primary suite offers a private retreat with an attached office, ensuite bathroom, private deck and dedicated laundry. A new hot tub on the covered deck provides the perfect place to unwind while taking in the tranquil lake views. Above the expansive garage, a carriage house provides a private and versatile space for family and guests, complete with its own kitchen, laundry, bedrooms, and bathrooms. A breezeway creates a seamless connection between the carriage house and main residence while maintaining a sense of privacy. Outdoor living is at the heart of this exceptional property, with a heated in ground pool overlooking the lake and a private dock designed for effortless enjoyment of the water. A pile-driven dock with a substantial boat lift makes boating and lakeside recreation remarkably convenient. A rare opportunity to experience refined waterfront living in one of Peachland's most sought-after settings. (id:6769)
