

5601 Twin Creek Place Kelowna British Columbia

$829,900

Nearly 10 acres of opportunity await in the scenic Ellison hillside. Set among rolling hills, established orchards, and forested surroundings, this expansive parcel offers a quiet rural atmosphere with sweeping views throughout the valley. Its size and layout provide several possibilities for positioning a future residence while making the most of the natural landscape. A wide range of permitted uses creates exceptional flexibility for building. An existing well is already on the property, and paved access extends directly to the parcel. The location is close to Sunset Ranch and Shadow Ridge golf courses, with Ellison Dog Park, High Noon Park, and numerous outdoor recreation areas nearby. Families will also appreciate the property's location within the Ellison Elementary School catchment. Whether you envision a private country estate, a working agricultural property, or a combination of home and business, this acreage offers the space and versatility to shape it around your goals.
