

Estevan Saskatchewan

$219,900

Impressive street appeal will draw you into 726 4th Street, Estevan. The current owners completely redid the main level right down to the studs, with all electrical and plumbing replaced, windows, furnace, metal roof, flooring, kitchen cupboards, new bathroom. Each entry way is large which is a great feature for added storage and lots of space for outerwear and for welcoming guests. There is one bedroom and a large bathroom on the main level, which was formerly a bedroom. The kitchen has more than enough cupboards and counter space and the dining room and living room are open concept. The basement has two additional bedrooms, a family room area, 3 piece bathroom and a lot of storage. The backyard is a real private retreat, with a permanent gazebo, deck with gazebo, firepit area, healthy lawn, firepit, a garage tent and a nice sized shed. The owners have taken great care with a garden, many perennials and flower beds, surrounded by the low maintenance metal fence. To top it all off, the single heated garage ensures your vehicle is sheltered. The concrete driveway parks two vehicles and there is RV parking where the garage tent currently sits off the back alley. Get ready to fall in love with this enchanting bungalow, where owner's pride and great care is evident throughout! (id:6769)
