

9723 160TH Avenue Osoyoos British Columbia

$650,000

This 1.3-acre property features flat, sunny terrain with fertile soil, partial fencing, and a small orchard producing apricots, plums, cherries, peaches, pears, asparagus, and more. Formerly operated as a U-pick orchard, the land has a well-known local history. Situated just minutes from downtown Osoyoos and Osoyoos Lake, and surrounded by established vineyards and orchards, the location is well-suited for an estate home, agricultural venture, hobby farm, or affordable rural residence. Multiple potential building sites allow for placement of a new home set back from the road, while the road frontage offers convenient access and visibility. The property benefits from a long, productive growing season. An original 1930s-era 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom home remains on site but requires major repairs or removal. With its flexible land use, prime location, and agricultural potential, this property presents a rare opportunity. Contact the listing agent to request viewing access.
