

L 197 Estate Place Anglemont British Columbia

$64,800

In the community of Anglemont this lot is in a wonderful location. It will have an unobstructed view once the trees are cleared and your home is built due to the home below being on the bottom part of the slope on the lower road and will not block your view! It is fairly level with a circular driveway on a no thru road. The property has Hydro and the Anglemont water system at the lot line. You may use the trees to help you build and/or remove them as you desire to create your own ideas for your dream home! It is so beautiful & quiet - it's a short drive to the Anglemont Golf Course, Anglemont Marina & Lakeside Community Hall plus there are seasonal farmer's markets from Celista to Sorrento. In the winter you can enjoy ice skating & hockey at Farrell's Field Community Park plus snowmobiling at Crowfoot Mountain!!! Call your realtor today :) (id:6769)
