

370 Zaragoza Puerto Vallarta

$2,900,000

In an enviable location overlooking the Rio Cuale, Centro and the Bay of Banderas at the top of Gringo Gulch, Casa Catalina is an expansive, and refined villa built during the time of Hollywood in Puerto Vallarta. Designed by renowned architect Freddy Romero, and once home to famed director John Huston, Casa Catalina offers over 7,900 square feet of quintessential Vallarta tropical style. Completely refreshed, this elegant four level home offers five bedrooms, each with an ensuite, chef's kitchen and butler pantry, expansive entertaining areas, multiple terraces to enjoy a cocktail and a game of backgammon, a heated saltwater pool with plenty of space for lounging, outdoor kitchen and BBQ, home theatre, library and more making this villa a true escape in paradise.
