Experience upscale living in one of Puerto Vallarta's most iconic architectural masterpieces--Rincon de Almas. Designed by renowned architects Derek Dellekamp and Frida Escobedo, this striking building stands as a testament to bold creativity and innovation. This upscale studio is situated in the heart of the Romantic Zone, on a highly desirable street with flat, walkable access to the city, river, and ocean--no hills, no buses, just effortless urban living. Thoughtfully upgraded, the unit features a full-size fridge and dishwasher, washer & dryer, & electric blinds. The studio also includes a parking space and a private bodega (storage space) for added convenience.
