

1767 Ross Road West Kelowna British Columbia

$99,900

Well established, profitable, and continuing growing sporting goods retail store offering hunting, shooting, fishing, archery, and camping products as well as other outdoor supplies, scope mounting and bore sighting services. Most of their sales are firearms and ammunition. Located in West Kelowna the owner operates this sole proprietor business with established and growing customer base. After 10 years the owner wants to retire and hand over this booming business to the next outdoor enthusiast. Continue this turnkey business as is or take it to the next level by launching an e-commerce site, extend operating hours, expand product line, and participate in club activities and trade shows.
