

2302 Skimikin Road Tappen British Columbia

$5,990,000

Opportunity to own a lot with license to a premium natural spring water source. The lot is 19.31 acres & surrounded by natural creek & forest, a pristine region with little human habitation and no industry, yet only 5km from the Trans Canada Highway and all access roads are paved. The package contains lot, well, water license, residence & warehouse, also a winery license together with some winery assets. The natural water source flows constantly all year around at around 30,000 liters per minute in the driest time of the year. The property has an artesian supply of uncommonly high quality,alkaline, mineralized water suitable for water bottling. Water license allows diverting 72,000 liters a day for bottling and distribution. Suitable for BC PNP immigration program. (id:6769)
