

323 Windsor Avenue Penticton British Columbia

$995,000

Allow me to introduce you to this fantastic rancher. This home offers over 2,000 sq. ft. of living area. Built in 1970 this home has seen many high-quality improvements as well has been meticulously maintained. If you have parents that require care in your home there is that option with a separate In-Law suite on the main floor, or if you require additional income the suite could be a mortgage helper or keep it for guests, or perhaps you simply want the entire home for yourself, decisions, decisions but nice to have so many options. There is also a separate suited building at the back of the property with an excellent tenant. Situated in one of the most desirable neighborhoods in Penticton, why do I say this? Because the residential land sizes in this area are massive .289 of an acre meaning 12,588.84 sq. ft. They just do not build new homes any longer on such generous sized lots. So, let's just say you won't have any issues with putting in a pool. In addition to the size the home is a corner lot which means even more upside. Life is about trying to have no regrets so don't hesitate to call for a viewing of this one-of-a-kind home after checking out the floor plans provided. (id:6769)
