

4900 27 Street 640 Vernon British Columbia

$109,000

Seize the unique opportunity to purchase a turn-key business in the bustling Village Green Mall food court. This prime location offers high foot traffic and visibility. Well-established, Teriyaki Express has been successfully running for seven years in the exact location. The owners are ready to retire and pass on the thriving business to the next owner. The store requires no additional investment, and everything is included, from equipment to inventories, making it an exceptionally profitable venture and a turn-key opportunity. It offers a simple, straightforward operation model ideal for busy entrepreneurs or first-time business owners. The seller is willing to stay and train the new owner to help you get on track quickly. This is a rare chance to enter a thriving, easy-to-manage business in a premium mall location without the usual franchise constraints, making it a perfect blend of opportunity and convenience for potential buyers.
